2015 Hunter Rules
Tee-Ball RULES

1. A field team shall consist of 10 players.
2. Each player will receive 3 swings. If the 3rd swing is fouled off or is short of the line the batter is out.
3. Outfielders must remain in the outfield grass until the ball is hit.
4. A runner cannot leave the base until the ball is hit. If found to leave "early", as determined by the umpire, the runner will be called out and the ball is dead.
5. 1st base over throw is a dead ball and the runner CAN NOT advance. Over throw to any other base will be awarded one base.
6. Coach cannot touch or place the batter in the box. Coach cannot touch any players on the field.
7. If the ball is thrown from the field of play, the "one plus one rule applies". If this occurs during the "last batter", the offensive coach may allow the play to stand with the "one plus one rule"
8. The infield fly rule does not apply.
9. Time Out Rule: Play continues until the umpire calls "time". This is done when, in the opinion of the umpire, the defensive infield player with the possession of the ball. This player (with the ball) will request "time" but play will continue until the umpire grants that request. A 30-foot hash mark will determine if the runner may advance to the next base or if they must return to the previous base. Hash marks are between 1st and 2nd, 2nd and 3rd and 3rd and Home. A infielder must call for a time out in fair territory.
10. A team is permitted to bat until there are 3 outs or until the offensive team bats the 10th batter in the continuous batting order. In the case of "batting around", the team at bat will notify the defensive team when the "last batter" comes to the plate. This creates a two out situation. The inning ends when: 1) the defensive team executes an out. Or 2) the defensive team touches home plate while in possession of the ball before the last batter scores, or 3) the last batter scores before any defensive play is made. 6th inning is unlimited runs, must get 3 outs.
11. A player throwing the bat after hitting the ball will be called out and the ball dead.
12. A 12 after 4 and 10 after 5 "Run-Rule" is in affect.
13. Games will consist of (6) six innings or 1:15 time limit. No new inning will be started after 1:15 of play. There can be ties in the pool bracket.
14. The whole roster bats but only up till 10 players per inning. Last inning is unlimited must get 3 outs.
15. bats must be stamped 1.15
